BUILDING & CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY PAYMENTS ACT 2004 (QLD)

TRAINING COURSES

Building and Construction Payment Solutions is a company who prepares payment claims, payment schedules, adjudication applications and adjudication responses on behalf of their clients under the Building and Construction Industry Payments Act 2004 (Qld)

Security of Payment legislation was introduced in 2004 to provide a swift and efficient resolution of payment disputes in the Building and Construction Industry. The Act is designed to speed up the process of resolving payment disputes or issues between parties within the industry. It provides for a quick and inexpensive process facilitated by a qualified adjudicator.

Building and Construction Payment Solutions is available to present training courses aimed at giving builders, trade contractors, architects, engineers, construction and project managers and lawyers an understanding of and an insight into the operations of the Building and Construction Industry Payments Act 2004 (Qld). The training courses are designed to provide a basic and practical understanding of the Act, and the adjudication process.

These information sessions are equally applicable to the NSW Security of Payments Act. This legislation is applicable to the following industries: Building work, civil engineering, demolition, electrical, hire of plant and material, landscaping, maintenance, mechanical, architectural design, surveying, supply of building materials, plus many more.
